CALL FOR PUBLIC FINANCE MANAGEMENT (PFM) RESEARCH FELLOWS FOR THE 2023/24 COHORT!

The Institute of Public Finance is a non-profit think tank that generates research-driven evidence for advocacy and provides technical assistance to state and non-state actors in order to promote equitable, efficient and effective public finance underpinned by Transparency, Accountability and Participation.

As part of our efforts in building a strong cadre of skilled Public Finance Management (PFM) practitioners, we offer a one-year paid fellowship program to early-career postgraduates of Economics, Public Finance and/or Public Policy.

This program provides on-the-job experience by equipping fellows with the necessary thematic research and analytical expertise in the field of public finance management. It also provides an opportunity to actively engage with government entities at both national and county levels, as well as non-state actors for comprehensive exposure.

It is customized for postgraduate students who have completed their course work/theoretical training and are looking to enhance their skills in this dynamic landscape of public finance management.

The program covers the following thematic areas:

- (i) Tax and Debt
- (ii) Macro-Fiscal

- (iii) Health Financing
- (iv) Climate Financing

In each of these areas, the fellows will be engaged broadly on PFM systems (laws, policies, regulations, institutions, actors, capacities, reforms, tools), pillared by Transparency, Accountability and Participation (TAP) in PFM.

Application dossiers should include:

- i. Application letter.
- ii. Detailed CV, including names and contacts (telephone and e-mail) of three (3) referees.
- iii. Proof of PhD enrollment and completion of coursework
- iv. A 2-page concept note in any of the research areas above, stating possible research problem and objectives.

Suitable candidates are requested to apply via the email address recruitment@ipfglobal.or.ke on or before close of business 31st May 2023. The position attracts a competitive remuneration package that includes a medical cover.

IPF embraces diversity and is committed to providing equal employment opportunities. Therefore, all suitable candidates are encouraged to apply.
